

“So... what are you going to do with that?”

Alternate Career Paths for English Graduate Students

Have you ever considered escaping from the library and TA offices, and finding a career outside the ivory tower? Our panelists, who all hold graduate degrees in English, will speak about their job experiences beyond the traditional academic career path in a variety of fields, including communications, journalism, business, design, and library science.

DATE: Monday, April 26, 2010

PLACE: Thomson House, Room 404

TIME: 5:00pm to 7:00pm